COURSE PROGRAM
DIN0538 - GLOBALIZATION AND INTERNATIONAL LAW
SEMESTER 2/2023

PROFESSOR: Prof. Dr. Alberto do Amaral Junior
Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law / USP

TEACHING ASSISTANTS: Ana Carolina Cazetta and Mariana Villa Nova Master's students of Public International Law

DAY AND HOUR: on Fridays, from 9:15 am to 12:50 am
(starts on 11/08/2023; ends on 15/12/2023)

MOODLE: <https://edisciplinas.usp.br/acessar/>

PRESENTATION OF THE COURSE

In this Course the students will learn about the international order, the relationship between China and USA, as well as climate change and markets in international relations, through documental and jurisprudential analysis, as well as current cases.

The classes are composed of 3 moments: 1) Explanation by the Professor; 2) Presentation of a dynamic material (videos, conferences etc); 3) Case study debated by the class and monitored by the Teaching Assistants.

EVALUATION

The final grade of the student will be composed of:

1. Oral participation in classes: 25% of the final grade.

The oral presentation of students in classes is encouraged to provide a space for the collective construction of learning. In this sense, students' proactive participation in the debates of the proposed cases will also be scored, which will occur during the semester of the course.

2. Moot Court | Dynamics: 25% of the final grade.

At the end of the course, the teaching assistants will provide a hypothetical case to the students, to spur the students on the judicial procedures. Students are expected to develop (i) writing memos, which shall be delivered through Moodle by 11:59 pm on June 1st; (ii) oral presentation of their arguments at the last class, to take place on June 2nd.

3. Exam at the end of the course: 50% of the final grade.

At the end of the course, a reflective test will be proposed about the concepts and learning gained during the semester. Students will have to think critically about the proposed theme, which will be released and explained in the last class, date will be confirmed soon, but probably on July 7th.

TEACHING ASSISTANTS DUTIES

The Teaching Assistants will help on the classes on the discussions of the bibliography and on the case studies, as well as assist the students during the course on any doubt on the themes or the schedule.

Besides, they will present about three or four questions to engage the discussions on every class regarding the main themes of the course.
